

Biography
David S. Rosen

David S. Rosen has been with the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago for over thirty-two years. He is currently Senior Vice President, Endowments, where he leads a staff of twenty-six, working in a variety of areas which include planned giving, donor advised giving, major gifts and special funds initiative. David came to the Federation from the Attorney General's Charitable Trusts and Solicitations Division where he served as Assistant Attorney General. He currently serves as Co-Chairman of the Illinois Attorney General's Charitable Advisory Committee. He was trained as a tax lawyer, earning both a J.D. and LL.M., and has been a frequent speaker before various lay and professional groups. He has also served as the Chairman of the Chicago Bar Association Trust Law Committee, and the Annual ITT Chicago-Kent College of Law, Not-For-Profit Law Conference. His expertise has put him in a consulting role at various Jewish Federations and other not-for-profit groups around the country.