*Director, All Saints Health Foundation
Baylor Scott & White All Saints Medical Center - Fort Worth, Baylor Scott & White Health*

In May 2013, Cathy was named Director of the All Saints Health Foundation, where she oversees the fundraising programs of the Foundation. All Saints Health Foundation exists to support the Baylor Scott & White All Saints in serving all people through exemplary health care and education. Baylor Scott and White All Saints is the third largest Medical Center in the Baylor Scott and White Health System, a 48 hospital system. Baylor Scott & White Health is the largest nonprofit organization in Texas and one of the largest health systems in the United States.

Prior to All Saints Health Foundation, Cathy worked for Texas Health Resources as the director of gift planning for the System's 16 hospitals and two supporting foundations: Texas Health Harris Methodist Foundation and Texas Health Presbyterian Foundation. Cathy has also worked for Cook Children's Health Foundation, Texas Christian University, the University of Texas at Arlington, and in Washington, D.C. for United States Senator Byron L. Dorgan of North Dakota.

Cathy received her MBA from the Neeley School of Business at Texas Christian University and a Bachelor of Science from North Dakota State University. Cathy is a Certified Specialist in Planned Giving and a Certified Fundraising Executive. Cathy is chair-elect of the National Partnership for Philanthropic Planning Board of Directors, served as the Chair of the 2015 National Conference on Philanthropic Planning. Cathy is also a member of the PPP Leadership Institute, a program that provides education, networking and service opportunities for the nation's most experienced charitable planners. Locally, Cathy is a member and past president of the Lone Star Council of PPP (Fort Worth) and a member and past officer of the North Texas Chapter of PPP (Dallas). In 2015, Cathy was honored by the Fort Worth Metro Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals with The Ben Franklin Award for the Outstanding Professional Fundraising Executive, the highest professional honor she has received.

Optional: In her personal life, Cathy is a member of the Fort Worth Women's Club and the Fort Worth Club. Cathy serves as the immediate past-president of the board of directors for Camp Sanguinity, a camp for children with cancer and blood disorders. In addition to serving on the board for Camp Sanguinity, Cathy and her husband, Scott, volunteer as camp counselors for the week-long summer camp. Cathy and her husband reside in Fort Worth, Texas.
