

After a long career as a probate and estate attorney in Chicago, Deborah Roberts transitioned into planned giving, first at The Salvation Army and currently at The Trust for Public Land. She enjoys helping donors accomplish their giving goals while making a positive impact on equity, humanity and our environment. Based in Denver, her territory includes the Mid-West, Southwest, Northern Rockies, Pacific Northwest and Hawaii.