

Jennifer Winnett Denniston has dedicated more than two decades to working with clients in the areas of banking, investment and retirement planning, and estate planning. Jennifer found her professional passion in philanthropy, though, when she took on her first planned giving role in 2012. She currently serves as the Director of Planned Giving at Plan International USA, a post she has held since 2015. She is blessed each day to work with individuals across the nation who share her commitment to empower all children, and especially girls, to realize their full potential in communities where they are safe, educated, and economically empowered. Jennifer received her bachelor's degree in political science and mass communication from Saint Mary's College in Notre Dame, Indiana, and her master's degree in business management from Indiana Wesleyan University. She received her law degree with a concentration in taxation from the Indiana University Maurer School of Law and is licensed to practice law in Indiana.
