

Joseph A. Like, CFRE

Joseph A. Like has over 25 years of experience in securing philanthropic support for non-profit organizations including healthcare systems, medical associations, foundations, colleges, universities, community centers, museums, libraries, and social service agencies. Joe is a Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE) and completed the Certified Financial Planner Course at Northwestern University. He has served as president for the Chicago Council on Planned Giving and received the Jon Heintzelman Volunteer Service Award for his work on the council. He is currently a board member for the Association of Fundraising Professionals Chicago Chapter, where he co-chairs the Fellows Program. Most recently, Joe was the Director of Gift Planning for Loyola University Chicago.